The Honourable Winston Baldwin Spencer
Prime Minister of Antigua and Barbuda
Office of the Prime Minister
Antigua and Barbuda

Honourable Prime Minister,

I refer to my letter of February 25, 2014, confirming that the OAS will observe the upcoming General Elections in Antigua and Barbuda.

I take this opportunity to inform you that I am designating Dr. Rosina Wiltshire, a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago, as Chief of the Electoral Observation Mission (EOM). Dr. Wiltshire has extensive international experience and currently serves as the first CARICOM Advocate for Gender Justice. She has a wealth of experience in international cooperation, gender and development, having served for 16 years in various capacities at the United Nations Development Program (UNDP), and most recently as the Chief of Mission of the OAS Electoral Observation Mission for the 2011 General Elections in Saint Lucia.

Dr. Wiltshire will be assisted by Mr. David Alvarez Veloso, Specialist of the OAS Department of Electoral Cooperation and Observation (DECO). Mr. Alvarez has worked for more than 5 years as an OAS staff member on electoral issues, and has also served in more than 15 Electoral Observation Missions within the Americas.

I appreciate the cooperation of the authorities of Antigua and Barbuda in providing the requisite support and courtesies to Dr. Wiltshire and her team.

Please accept, Honourable Prime Minister, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Jose Miguel Insulza
Secretary General
